

3 DIE INSTANTLY IN AUTO-TRAIN CRASH

CAMPAIGN ISSUE FOR CONGRESSMEN STILL UNDECIDED

SHIP SUBSIDY SHELVED; TARIFF MEASURE MAY FOLLOW.

STRIKES COME UP

Federal Economy, Labor, Naval Disarmament Conference Among High Lights.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

Copyright, 1922, by the Janesville Gazette.

Washington.—Events of the last week, particularly the refusal of the Ohio republican convention to endorse either the soldier bonus or the Fordney-McCumber tariff, have prompted republicans and democrats alike to wonder just what will be the issues of the autumn campaign.

Ship subsidy legislation, which it had been hoped would be one of the constructive achievements of the administration, has been postponed until after the elections and the tariff bill now in conference may meet the same fate. The only other achievements remaining available to the administration are the administrative conference to reduce naval armament and the subsequent results, as well as the reduction of federal expenditure under the budget system.

But politicians who have narrowed the issues to the foregoing are not altogether sure this will be all. They see rising up to plague them the discontent of the country over the rail and coal strikes.

Point to Inaction.

It will be the democratic purpose to show that the government failed to take any action for many months after strikes began in the all-important domain of transportation and fuel. It will be the republican answer that governments can't make men work when they don't want to.

And that the government retained the power to force industrial peace. Whatever the defense, the offense, the fact is there's a rising tide of opinion which congress sees on the horizon and it may furnish the outstanding issue of the whole campaign.

In a nutshell the issue may be whether the government could have done more than it did, whether congress could have done something more, and made a stand on the transportation systems of the country impossible. Whether the government could have proceeded more energetically in protecting those who wanted to work but who feared violence, and whether the government could have done any more than it tried to do in regulating the price of fuel to the consumer.

More Political Phases.

All these questions have more political phases to them than the amount of courage, whose results are not so quiet, as appreciated by the mass of voters. Also the women vote, which will make itself felt in the coming congressional elections in a way that may prove surprising.

(Continued on page 4.)

Coal Plentiful, Held for Price, Says Henry Ford

[By ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Detroit.—Henry Ford, in announcing Saturday that his plants would be closed, Sept. 16, because of conditions in the coal industry, began a fight for what he believes a great principle. The Associated Press was informed Monday by sources close to the manufacturer.

Mr. Ford, it was stated, has started what he declares is a fight against alleged profiteering in coal and he believes he is in a better position, perhaps, to do so than any one else. He feels, it was stated, that by taking up the fight he is doing every other manufacturer as well as working men throughout the country, a real service.

Mr. Ford denies there is a coal shortage. The investigation of his representatives has convinced him, it was stated, that coal brokers have an enormous profit on hand, and the Ohio Manufacturers' company could cover a tract 10 acres square with coal if it would submit to being victimized by profiteers.

It was declared. For several weeks, it was asserted, the Ford offices at Dearborn have been flooded with offers of coal.

It was declared the prices asked ranged from 100 to 300 percent above normal.

"Mr. Ford believes he yields to the term 'hold up' of the coal brokers, every other manufacturer will follow suit and coal prices will reach an unprecedented height under the budget system.

The Ford company recently has received a large number of offers from coal operators to sell mines. It was explained that the offering miners meant but little as they can be purchased now for almost nothing because of the large stocks of coal held by brokers."

Point to Inaction.

It will be the democratic purpose to show that the government failed to take any action for many months after strikes began in the all-important domain of transportation and fuel. It will be the republican answer that governments can't make men work when they don't want to.

And that the government retained the power to force industrial peace. Whatever the defense, the offense, the fact is there's a rising tide of opinion which congress sees on the horizon and it may furnish the outstanding issue of the whole campaign.

In a nutshell the issue may be whether the government could have done more than it did, whether congress could have done something more, and made a stand on the transportation systems of the country impossible. Whether the government could have proceeded more energetically in protecting those who wanted to work but who feared violence, and whether the government could have done any more than it tried to do in regulating the price of fuel to the consumer.

More Political Phases.

All these questions have more political phases to them than the amount of courage, whose results are not so quiet, as appreciated by the mass of voters. Also the women vote, which will make itself felt in the coming congressional elections in a way that may prove surprising.

(Continued on page 4.)

Promises but No Coal in Wisconsin

[By ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Milwaukee.—The whole advertised plan of the national fuel administration to distribute coal to the middle western states at fair prices "looks like a big pile of politics," R. H. Presentin, secretary of the Wisconsin coal committee, said Monday as the third week of federal action to bring about the movement of coal opened.

Industries of the state are confronted with a critical situation and may, in some instances, be forced to shut down as a result of dependence on the assurance of federal authority, he said. Mr. Presentin declared.

The principal cities, the vote is given us: Stockholm—21,906 for, 28,300 against; Golenburg—29,003 for, 51,437 against; Helsinki—26,000 for, 12,525 against; Balmo—6,077 for, 32,839 against.

(Continued on page 5.)

Sweden Lost to Drys on Ballot

Stockholm.—The "drys" seem to have lost the day in the Swedish prohibition plebiscite, according to the latest provisional returns available. The figures issued Monday morning are 772,747 for and $46,550 against.

Among the principal cities the vote is given us: Stockholm—21,906 for,

28,300 against; Golenburg—29,003 for, 51,437 against; Helsinki—26,000 for, 12,525 against; Balmo—6,077 for, 32,839 against.

(Continued on page 4.)

Worker Admits He Caused Big Wreck; Second Denies It

[By ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Gary, Ind.—Four of nine men, declared to be under arrest in connection with the wrecking of a Michigan Central express train here Aug. 20, alleged they are striking railroad shopmen and one of the Monday claimed they had loosened a rail which derailed the express and killed the engineer and fireman.

Charles Uloses, a anarchist, who said he was employed by the New York Central railroad prior to the strike, told how spikes were drawn from the rails at the place where the train was wrecked early Sunday morning, Aug. 20.

None of the men denied union membership when interviewed at police headquarters, but Joseph Popovich denied the whole story.

Secretary Davis

in Session With Leader of Miners

[By ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Philadelphia.—Secretary of Labor Davis conferred here Monday with John J. Lewis, International President of the United Mine Workers, in the hope of breaking the deadlock in the anthracite strike. Mr. Davis left for Washington immediately after the conference. Neither he nor Mr. Lewis would talk.

Sell Crab Apples Now

This is jelly making time. Scores of people throughout Gazette territory are interested in putting up some crab apple jelly now while the supply is good.

Do you have some for sale? If so, send us an ad in the Want-Ad page of the Gazette telling how to get to your place, the number of your phone, the kind, quality and price of your apples, etc.

Every person who has used a Gazette Want-Ad for the purpose of selling fruit this season has reported very satisfactory results.

Send your ad for the ad and good sales results from its use has made many friends for the Service of this ad dept. Phone your order today. $500.

The Black Cats and Milton Crescent are billed to meet in a baseball game at 3 o'clock.

A horse-shoe contest will be held immediately after the game.

Other events listed are: Race for boys, 7 to 9; race for girls, 7 to 9; race for boys, 3 to 15; race for girls, 9 to 15; steeplechase race, old men's race, age 60 and over; football race for young men; free-for-all for young women; and tug of war.

Dancing at Elches.

There will be dancing at the Pines pavilion throughout the afternoon and evening with music by Hatch's orchestra. A prize will be awarded to the oldest woodman on the grounds.

Following are the committed making plans:

Grandstand finance—Carl Brockhouse, Lynn Whaley, Janesville; J. M. McElroy, E. W. Burger, Beloit.

Sports—Joseph Forrest, Frank W. Parker, George Schaller, Janesville; Fred A. Merrill, A. W. Turrill, N. D. Judd, Beloit.

Advertising—August, Meyer, Orville Morse, Walter Helms.

Music and speakers—Walter Helms, T. L. Mason, Janesville; T. M. Lien, David Throne, Beloit.

The Black Cats and Milton Cres-

cent are billed to meet in a baseball game at 3 o'clock.

A horse-shoe contest will be held immediately after the game.

Other events listed are: Race for boys, 7 to 9; race for girls, 7 to 9; race for boys, 3 to 15; race for girls, 9 to 15; steeplechase race, old men's race, age 60 and over; football race for young men; free-for-all for young women; and tug of war.

Dancing at Elches.

There will be dancing at the Pines pavilion throughout the afternoon and evening with music by Hatch's orchestra. A prize will be awarded to the oldest woodman on the grounds.

Following are the committed making plans:

Grandstand finance—Carl Brockhouse, Lynn Whaley, Janesville; J. M. McElroy, E. W. Burger, Beloit.

Sports—Joseph Forrest, Frank W. Parker, George Schaller, Janesville; Fred A. Merrill, A. W. Turrill, N. D. Judd, Beloit.

Advertising—August, Meyer, Orville Morse, Walter Helms.

Music and speakers—Walter Helms, T. L. Mason, Janesville; T. M. Lien, David Throne, Beloit.

The Black Cats and Milton Cres-

cent are billed to meet in a baseball game at 3 o'clock.

A horse-shoe contest will be held immediately after the game.

Other events listed are: Race for boys, 7 to 9; race for girls, 7 to 9; race for boys, 3 to 15; race for girls, 9 to 15; steeplechase race, old men's race, age 60 and over; football race for young men; free-for-all for young women; and tug of war.

Dancing at Elches.

There will be dancing at the Pines pavilion throughout the afternoon and evening with music by Hatch's orchestra. A prize will be awarded to the oldest woodman on the grounds.

Following are the committed making plans:

Grandstand finance—Carl Brockhouse, Lynn Whaley, Janesville; J. M. McElroy, E. W. Burger, Beloit.

Sports—Joseph Forrest, Frank W. Parker, George Schaller, Janesville; Fred A. Merrill, A. W. Turrill, N. D. Judd, Beloit.

Advertising—August, Meyer, Orville Morse, Walter Helms.

Music and speakers—Walter Helms, T. L. Mason, Janesville; T. M. Lien, David Throne, Beloit.

The Black Cats and Milton Cres-

cent are billed to meet in a baseball game at 3 o'clock.

A horse-shoe contest will be held immediately after the game.

Other events listed are: Race for boys, 7 to 9; race for girls, 7 to 9; race for boys, 3 to 15; race for girls, 9 to 15; steeplechase race, old men's race, age 60 and over; football race for young men; free-for-all for young women; and tug of war.

Dancing at Elches.

There will be dancing at the Pines pavilion throughout the afternoon and evening with music by Hatch's orchestra. A prize will be awarded to the oldest woodman on the grounds.

Following are the committed making plans:

Grandstand finance—Carl Brockhouse, Lynn Whaley, Janesville; J. M. McElroy, E. W. Burger, Beloit.

Sports—Joseph Forrest, Frank W. Parker, George Schaller, Janesville; Fred A. Merrill, A. W. Turrill, N. D. Judd, Beloit.

Advertising—August, Meyer, Orville Morse, Walter Helms.

Music and speakers—Walter Helms, T. L. Mason, Janesville; T. M. Lien, David Throne, Beloit.

The Black Cats and Milton Cres-

cent are billed to meet in a baseball game at 3 o'clock.

A horse-shoe contest will be held immediately after the game.

Other events listed are: Race for boys, 7 to 9; race for girls, 7 to 9; race for boys, 3 to 15; race for girls, 9 to 15; steeplechase race, old men's race, age 60 and over; football race for young men; free-for-all for young women; and tug of war.

Dancing at Elches.

There will be dancing at the Pines pavilion throughout the afternoon and evening with music by Hatch's orchestra. A prize will be awarded to the oldest woodman on the grounds.

Following are the committed making plans:

Grandstand finance—Carl Brockhouse, Lynn Whaley, Janesville; J. M. McElroy, E. W. Burger, Beloit.

Sports—Joseph Forrest, Frank W. Parker, George Schaller, Janesville; Fred A. Merrill, A. W. Turrill, N. D. Judd, Beloit.

Advertising—August, Meyer, Orville Morse, Walter Helms.

Music and speakers

Walworth County

MORGAN SPEAKS TO 1,000 IN DELAVAN

Crowd Applauds Candidate in Saturday Night Talk in Park

[secret to non-residents]

Delavan.—W. L. Morgan, candidate for republican nomination for governor of the state, addressed a gathering of more than 1,000 persons in the park here Saturday night. Mr. Morgan's excellent oratory and interesting points brought out kept all interested during all the two hours that he talked, and scarcely one left.

Mr. Morgan gave his platform and explained his views on certain questions of disagreement in the state. The audience sat with him during the talk and applauded frequently. He also spoke on the collection of taxes, saying that he favored a semi-annual collection, taking the money when the farmer had harvested his crops and had money.

Mr. Morgan was a guest of Delavan friends Saturday night and left Sunday morning for Milwaukee.

SHARON

Sharon.—The Misses May and Elsie Paulson left Saturday for Dolores, Kan., after visiting Miss Ida Chester.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmon Weeks and son Vernon, and Miss Annabell Weeks spent last week in Durand.

Mrs. Butler, Mr. and Miss Hutchinson, Buffalo, N. Y., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvese Michelson.

Miss Hannah Durkee, Delavan, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Nettie Dickenson, at the home of the latter's daughter, Mrs. Elmon Weeks.

H. P. Larson and Fay Hickok spent Friday afternoon in Williams Bay.

Hugh Eichelman and sons, Arnett, Roy and Kyle, and Frederick Burrows attended the circus in Deloit Thursday.

Mrs. Ella Madway returned Thursday from a visit of two months in Kansas City and other western points.

Charles Hamlin, Harvard, spent Thursday with his mother, Mrs. William Hamlin.

George Hagenbaugh, Delavan, was in Sharon Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weir have moved from the Hagenbaugh house to the Market house, south of the town.

A large number attended the aid social at the Methodist church Friday afternoon. A program was enjoyed, after which refreshments were served by Misses Sweeny, Poley, Weller, from Sizer, Spear and Weller.

Daniel Ward, Orford, N. H., called on Sharon friend, Wm. C. Miller, Henry McFarhey, Boliviere, Wis., is visiting Roy Sweeny.

Nic. Lillo Youngs is visiting her mother, Mrs. S. M. Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. August Walters and Mrs. M. A. Zable visited the latter's husband Wednesday at Harvard College hospital.

DELAVAN

Delavan.—The barn dance held at the home of Jess Harris, Richmond, Friday night was a success. Two hundred couples were present. Hatch's orchestra, Janesville, furnished the music.

Old and young joined in the dance. Food was present from the dance.

The proceeds of the evening were over $100, which will be used principally for local charity. The barn is one of the best in Walworth county, 110 by 36 feet. The large timbers were sawed from trees which grew on the farm. J. S. Harris, the owner, up to date farmer, graduate from the agricultural school at Madison. Mr. and Mrs. Harris extended a royal welcome to all who attended.

The Women's Relief Corps met at their hall Friday afternoon. It was the regular meeting and the 35th anniversary of the organization of the corps.

Fifty-five women were present, three of them charter members—Misses K. N. Hollister, Elsie Hewes, and Anna Mosher. Mrs. Hollister read an interesting paper on the early history of the corps. Misses Hewes and Mosher gave humorous reminiscences of the corps in 1887 and its organization. Refreshments were served.

ROBBINS BUS LINE

Carrying Gazettes to Delavan and Elkhorn

Lv. Janesville at 8:45.

Arr. Delavan at 5:00.

Arr. Elkhorn at 6:30.

Fares: To Delavan $1.00.

To Elkhorn $1.35.

WALWORTH

(By Gazette Correspondent)

Walworth.—Mr. and Mrs. William Klutts and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scott, who have been visiting here, left Monday for their home in Ingram, Wis.

J. J. Thompson, U. S. S. engineering department, who has been a guest at the Frank Daniels home west of town for a couple of weeks, will leave Sept. 7 for San Francisco where he will be stationed this winter.

Mrs. Edward Rowlands, who broke her arm several weeks ago in an accident, is able to be about again.

Mrs. Ruby Long was in Harvard Saturday, call on Mrs. A. E. Freyer, a patient at the Harvard Cottage hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stewart, Harvard, were Walworth callers Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alberta returned Saturday from an outing in northern Wisconsin.

Albert Kinglsey, wife of Alden, called at the W. E. McElwain home Saturday.

Mr. Hindman and family, Sharon, called here Saturday night.

Mrs. Ida Sternborg spent Sunday with her parents, south of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Brinkman entertained 50 friends Saturday night in honor of his birthday.

W. L. Hibbard, entertaining a nephew from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Merlin have returned from New York.

Mrs. Ruth Long has returned from Alden where she did practical nursing.

Harry Hicks, who is working in Beloit, spent Sunday with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Huntly, Delavan, spent Sunday at the W. H. Chapman home.

Mrs. Edward Burr is ill in a Rockford sanatorium.

Mrs. Carrie Blythe, who was called to Bristol, Wis., by the illness of her

RECALLS FAMOUS DEBATE 64 YEARS AGO AT FREEPORT

Sixty-four years ago Sunday, at Freeport, Ill., Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas staged a debate in the Illinois senatorial contest which, although it resulted in the little Giant's election, made Lincoln a great national figure which resulted in his election a few years later.

The Royal Neighbors will have the district convention here in October and will initiate a class of candidates at that time. They have engaged a deputy from Milwaukee, who will assist in the camp in getting new members.

Henry Rober, Delavan, was in town the past week.

WHITEWATER

Whitewater.—Thursday was the 50th birthday of Mrs. Emeline Smith. A family celebration was planned by her daughter, Mrs. Clara Deown, including the following relatives: Orlin Smith and son Paul, Waukesha; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Jones of Palmyra; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Powislow and twin babies, Peter and Peggy, and Mr. and Mrs. George Brown of Whitewater. Mrs. Smith's friends also remembered the day and she was the recipient of many flowers, greetings and gifts, which made the anniversary one to be remembered.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis, Racine, had the following Whitewater guests: Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Colby, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Steele, and daughter, Miss Bessie, and Misses and Messrs. George S. Brown and Sam Brown. A son was born, Sunday, Aug. 27, to Mr. and Mrs. John Fleukiger, who was formerly Miss Maude Nierier.

Mr. Emma S. Coe had a happy Sunday, her birthday anniversary, when her relatives, and friends, entered their felicitations and expressed gratitude that she is recovering so satisfactorily from the recent fall which fractured her nose. Mrs. Belle Frier and sons, Donald and Lawrence, came Friday for a woman's visit with her mother and sister, Miss Susan E. Taylor and Miss Ella Taylor.

Mrs. Frances Zelar and daughter Carol, and nephew Glen Halgren of Elgin, are visiting the F. R. Bloodgood and H. J. Jones families.

Fred Thiele, who has spent the summer with his Beloit, Janesville and Whitewater relatives, returned Monday to Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tyrrell and daughter, Lake Geneva, were Sunday visitors at the Franklin Tyrrell home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Updike and Miss Ethel Updike drove to Devil's Lake Sunday to visit a brief time at the Bitham cottage, before motoring and camping through northern Wisconsin for a week or two.

Mrs. R. M. Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown and son, Bill, are visiting at the E. T. Warren home.

Mrs. Will Ewing was able to be taken home Sunday from Wheeler hospital where she has been recuperating from a major operation, performed sixteen days ago.

Philip E. Trautmann went to Waupun Friday morning where he is to be foreman in the milk department of the Libby, McNeill and Libby plant operating there.

Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thiele entertained sixteen guests at a seven o'clock supper in their home. Philip E. Trautmann attended a family reunion at the Charles Murwin home south of Evansville, Sunday.

Tuesday from their 3,450 mile trip. They went west on the Yellowstone trail, and returned over the Lincoln Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Steele and Miss Bessie Steele and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Colby returned Thursday from a motor trip which took them to Chippewa Falls, Humboldt, Plymouth, and other northern points.

READY TO GO FOR HARVEST FESTIVAL

Committees Under Full Head of Steam and Project Financed.

Neenah, Modern Woodmen, Mystic Workers, I. O. O. F. No. 14 and No. 20, City Retailers, City Schools, Salvation Army, W. O. W. and Y. M. C. A.

Five Committees

All of the details have been left in the hands of five committees. Joe Connors and a committee of 35 are raising the necessary funds. Charles Tonton's committee has charge of the war bond drive. Ed. Amerika's group is planning the entertainment while that of Robert Burgs has charge of all recreation. H. H. Dane and a committee of 40 will take care of the advertising and publicity. George Fisher has charge of all downtown decorations.

The committees are meeting each week. Tentative plans call for the decoration of 15 blocks of downtown streets with flags and bunting. There will be two pavement dances each night on one side of the river. A parade will start downtown each afternoon and "We're to the fair" will be where the recreation committee will hold forth.

The Harvest Festival is a gift by the business men of the city to the people of Janesville and vicinity. The money is to be spent in having a good time for two days; in celebrating a beautiful harvest; in appreciation of the fact that nothing has been harvested in many years. The festival will be down town each afternoon and "We're to the fair" will be where the recreation committee will hold forth.

The Harvest Festival was started in the Chamber of Commerce. It was put in the hands of the Steel Committee which consists of L. A. MacKinnon, chairman, Stephen Bells, Robert Collier, J. Louch and P. W. Wieden. Dr. W. T. Clark and H. J. Dene. This committee asked each of the clubs of Janesville to put one of its members on the steering committee so that this large committee would have entire charge of the festival.

To date the following organizations have combined with the Chamber of Commerce to make the festival a success: American Legion, American Legionnaires, City Band, Color Guard, Eagles, Elks, Firemen, Hibernians, Knights of Columbus, Knights of Pythias, Lakota, Lions, Kiwanis, Rotary, Masons.

No Admission.

No admission will be charged to any entertainment. Everything will be free. "Leave Your Pocketbook at Home" has been taken as a slogan. This is one time when Janesville is host—the guests will be entertained without expense to themselves.

The Harvest Festival was started in the Chamber of Commerce. It was put in the hands of the Steel Committee which consists of L. A. MacKinnon, chairman, Stephen Bells, Robert Collier, J. Louch and P. W. Wieden. Dr. W. T. Clark and H. J. Dene. This committee asked each of the clubs of Janesville to put one of its members on the steering committee so that this large committee would have entire charge of the festival.

To date the following organizations have combined with the Chamber of Commerce to make the festival a success: American Legion, American Legionnaires, City Band, Color Guard, Eagles, Elks, Firemen, Hibernians, Knights of Columbus, Knights of Pythias, Lakota, Lions, Kiwanis, Rotary, Masons.

TUESDAY SPECIALS

CHURCHSBURG, W. Va.—John Drysdale, who claimed to be 126 years old, died.

OLD TIME CONCERT repeated at 8:30 P. M. Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. Admission 10c and 25c.

Advertisement.

NORMA TALMADGE in one of her most wonderful productions, "Safety Curtain" with Alice Lake in "Kisses" Beverly. Three days starting Tuesday.

From the day I refused to fly the American flag over the city hall of Oshkosh, except at half mast, in mourning for the bygone days of American independence and personal liberty, to the time that I received the call of the Camels to become a personal liberty candidate for United States senator, I have been a man of my own volition and independent of clique and faction, decided to challenge the petty usages of Governor

McHenry Admits He Is Champion of Liberty

Baldwin and Attorney General Morgan in this campaign, I have never wavered in my plodding to return to the people of our fathers with the largest possible measure of individual freedom in our private lives and complete economic freedom in our industrial relationships."

It is correct there are some persons in Janesville who have a high regard for the dignity of a ladder. If you don't think so, watch the people who evade walking under a ladder that she had overhead nothing but atmosphere.

One woman walked under the ladder platform part way when she noticed it above her head. She turned around and recited her steps and then walked around the ladder that she had overhead nothing but atmosphere.

Our advertising is a guarantee of our faith in our goods, our prices and our service. Behind every message is the desire and ability to live up to the letter and spirit of the printed word.

We wish not only to let the buyer remember, but to make it impossible for him to forget!

Our advertising is a guarantee of our faith in our goods, our prices and our service. Behind every message is the desire and ability to live up to the letter and spirit of the printed word.

We wish not only to let the buyer remember, but to make it impossible for him to forget!

Our advertising is a guarantee of our faith in our goods, our prices and our service. Behind every message is the desire and ability to live up to the letter and spirit of the printed word.

We wish not only to let the buyer remember, but to make it impossible for him to forget!

Our advertising is a guarantee of our faith in our goods, our prices and our service. Behind every message is the desire and ability to live up to the letter and spirit of the printed word.

We wish not only to let the buyer remember, but to make it impossible for him to forget!

Our advertising is a guarantee of our faith in our goods, our prices and our service. Behind every message is the desire and ability to live up to the letter and spirit of the printed word.

We wish not only to let the buyer remember, but to make it impossible for him to forget!

Our advertising is a guarantee of our faith in our goods, our prices and our service. Behind every message is the desire and ability to live up to the letter and spirit of the printed word.

We wish not only to let the buyer remember, but to make it impossible for him to forget!

Our advertising is a guarantee of our faith in our goods, our prices and our service. Behind every message is the desire and ability to live up to the letter and spirit of the printed word.

We wish not only to let the buyer remember, but to make it impossible for him to forget!

Our advertising is a guarantee of our faith in our goods, our prices and our service. Behind every message is the desire and ability to live up to the letter and spirit of the printed word.

We wish not only to let the buyer remember, but to make it impossible for him to forget!

Our advertising is a guarantee of our faith in our goods, our prices and our service. Behind every message is the desire and ability to live up to the letter and spirit of the printed word.

We wish not only to let the buyer remember, but to make it impossible for him to forget!

Our advertising is a guarantee of our faith in our goods, our prices and our service. Behind every message is the desire and ability to live up to the letter and spirit of the printed word.

We wish not only to let the buyer remember, but to make it impossible for him to forget!

Our advertising is a guarantee of our faith in our goods, our prices and our service. Behind every message is the desire and ability to live up to the letter and spirit of the printed word.

We wish not only to let the buyer remember, but to make it impossible for him to forget!

Our advertising is a guarantee of our faith in our goods, our prices and our service. Behind every message is the desire and ability to live up to the letter and spirit of the printed word.

We wish not only to

THE SOCIAL CHRONICLE

SOCIAL EVENTS

SOCIAL CALENDAR.

MONDAY, AUG. 28.

X. W. F. M. S. annual meeting.

Methodist church.

Dinner for Miss Gerlach, Mrs. Fred

Gerlach.

TUESDAY, AUG. 29.

Afternoon—Luncheon, Mrs. O. N. Nelson.

Country club.

Luncheon, bridge club, Mrs. Ralph

South.

Evening—Supper, Country club.

Dinner for Miss Gerlach, Mrs. Osborn.

Old time concert, United Brethren church.

Cary-Prayer Wedding—The home

of Edwin Cary, Evansville, was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday night when his sister, Miss Letta Cary, daughter of Mrs. Emma Cary, 815

Prairie avenue, became the bride of Clarence Proper, son of Mr. and Mrs.

S. Proper, 805 Prairie avenue.

The Rev. A. W. Stephens, Baptist church, Evansville, performed the ceremony at 8:30 o'clock in the presence of 50 relatives.

Attending the bride were Miss Vil-

ola Johnson, this city, a bridesmaid,

attired in a frock of green organdy and carrying Columbia roses. Miss

Isabel Bennett, Attica, wore a pink organdy and carrying Opelie

roses, acted as maid of honor; Harold

Foster Jr., nephew of the groom, was bearing bearer and Walter Cary, Wonewoo, nephew of the bride, carried a basket of rose petals which were strewed in the path of the bridal party.

The groom was attended by Harold

Proper, his brother, and Orrie Johnson, both of Janesville.

The bride was given in marriage

by her brother, H. E. Cary, Wonewoo, who officiated in the ceremony.

She was gowned in white organdy with lace trimmings with lace. She wore a veil and carried a shower

bouquet of bride's roses and swanson.

Miss Olive Cary played Lohengrin's wedding march and Mrs. Henry Gil-lman, this city, a recent bride, sang

"My Prayer for You."

Following the ceremony, refreshments were served at one large table which seated the bride party, and several small tables. The house was pretty decorated with garden-flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Proper left Saturday night by automobile to visit relatives and friends in South Dakota. Upon their return, they will take up their residence at 815 Prairie avenue. The groom is employed in Beloit.

Dr. Robertson Marries—Dr. A. H.

Robertson, this city, and Miss Susie

Wallace Durand, Ill., were married in Rockford, Saturday. The Rev. J.

A. Gordon, Second Congregational church, officiated. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gestland,

North Portage.

Dr. Robertson is a prominent dentist of this city and has made many friends during his residence here.

The bride has visited here frequently as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gestland. She is Mrs. Gestland's sister.

Dr. and Mrs. Robertson will be at home after Sept. 15 at 559 South Main street.

Community Club to Meet—Rock

River Community club will meet

Wednesday afternoon at the home of

Mrs. Paul Hildebrandt, 1111 Main

Street to roll call with vegetable hints.

Goes to Denver—Miss Gladys

Franklin, 828 Hyatt street, left Monday for an extended trip through the west. She will go to Syracuse, Kas.

Tuesday.

It may not be such good blanket weather so far, as actual use, but it is certainly blanket weather when it comes to buying blankets now for this winter.

Practical women have learned to look upon this annual event as a most favorable

Blanket Buying Time.

In point of variety and value, this season's selling is of extreme significance.

Our buyer has been very fortunate in securing many special opportunities. This, together with our pre-season policy of small profits, results in savings, that make it very much worth while to "buy ahead."

Come to Blanket Headquarters Second Floor

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY

to spend some time with relatives and will visit in Lamont and Denver, Colo., before returning.

Girls Up the River—The Misses Marjorie, Marjorie, Frances Bell, Agnes, Dorcas, Frances, Gladys, Madeline, Mildred Townsend and Glenn's Belle Townsend have returned from an outing up the river. They spent a week at the Blue Triangle but at Crystal Springs. Mrs. D. E. Townsend was chaperone.

Celebrate Wedding Anniversary—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schultz, Eastern avenue, entertained the U. and A. Club the latter part of the week in observance of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Dinner was served at small tables at which cloths were laid for 14. Decorations for the home and tables were carried out in pink and yellow, with Gladoli, golden glow, and cosmos.

After the dinner five hundred was played and prizes taken by Mrs. Charles Beck, John Viney, and Hobson. Mr. and Mrs. Schultz were presented with several pieces of silver by the guests.

Club Supper Tuesday—The regular club supper will be served on Tuesday night at the Country club. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Clarke will have charge of it.

At Koskongon—Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Newmar and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kellogg will be guests at a house party at the McCarthy cottage, Lake Koskongon.

Here for Wedding—Mrs. John Devine and sons, Jack and David Minneapolises, will be guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Morrissey, 205 South High street. They came to attend the Morrissey-Gerlach wedding, on Thursday.

Attend Dinner Dance—Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Doty, Victor Whitton and Ross King, all of Chicago, and the Misses Katherine and Ethel Flinn, Seattle, Wash., who have been spending the summer in this city, the guests of her parents, motored to Lake Delavan, Saturday night and attended a dinner dance.

Return from Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arthur, 501 First street, motored Saturday from an automobile trip. They spent eight days visiting relatives in South Dakota.

Return from Chetek—Mr. and Mrs. John Dower, 4004 South Main street, are home after spending the past month at a house party at Lake Chetek.

Returns from Europe—C. V. Hibbard, Hastings, N. Y., arrived in this city Saturday evening to join his family who have been spending several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hibbard's parents, Mrs. and Mr. E. W. Hibbard, 402 Racine street. He just returned from Europe. He went over in June to do X. M. C. A. work.

Prenuptial Party Given—Mrs. Jessie Murray, South Franklin street, gave a 5 o'clock dinner party Saturday night in prenuptial courtesy to Miss Marie Gerlach whose marriage to William Morrissey will be an event of the week.

Dinner was served in four courses in large and small tables which were made attractive with centerpieces of mixed flowers in blue, yellow and pink.

Cards were placed and prizes were taken by Mrs. Glen Sweet and Mrs. John Albaum. Twenty women were guests, among them, Mrs. Allen, Belvidere, Ill., and the bride's sister from Mineral Point. Miss Gerlach was presented with a bridal shower.

Mrs. Fred Granger, 301 Court street, will give a dinner party Monday night complimentary to Miss Gerlach. Mrs. A. J. Osborn, 10 East street, has issued invitations for a dinner party Tuesday night at the Grand hotel in honor of the bride elect.

—Advertisement.

PERSONALS

20 at Family Dinner—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher, route 4, gave a family dinner Sunday. Twenty relatives were entertained in honor of Mrs. H. O. Douglas, and daughters, Martha and Isidore Douglas, Oberlin, Kas. Dinner was served in three courses at one long table where garden flowers were used in decorating.

Annual Meet of Mission Society—All troops of the Y. W. F. M. S. at the church at 7:35 Monday night to close the year's work preceding the annual meeting which will take place at 7:45. Officers will be elected.

Return from West—Miss Naomi Kestrel, 728 Glen street, and Miss Marion Fletcher, 618 Milwaukee avenue, have returned from a western trip. They spent a fortnight in the Yellowstone park, Salt Lake City, Utah, Denver, Colo., and other points of interest in the west.

Circle to Meet—Circle No. 6, Methodist church, will meet at 8:30 Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. A. M. Kingland, 745 Milton avenue. Miss L. Bird Stevens will be assistant hostess.

Entertain Guests at Rockford—Mrs. Edward Amorphi, 702 Court street, entertained Mrs. H. O. Douglass and daughters, Oberlin, Kan., Monday. They motored to Rockford for luncheon and attended the theater later.

Return After Vacations—Edmund Bright left the city Sunday for New York. After spending a week in this city, 14 North Bluff street. He is foreign representative for the Irving National bank at New York and has been in South America for several months. He expects to sail for Cuba in November.

Miss Eleanor Bright, Lexington, Ky., and Miss Katherine Bright, Chicago, have also returned after spending the summer at the Bright home.

Miss Marguerite Clark, 154 Corn Exchange, has returned to this city after a short vacation.

Floyd A. Rogers, Chicago Herald Examiner engraving department, and the Misses Hulda and Henrietta Klemek, Chicago, were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, 828 Sherman avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gestland and family, North Pearl street, left Monday on a 10 days' vacation to Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. Val J. Weber and son, Louis, Wisconsin street; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Zornow, Sherman avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Duggan, Milwaukee, were spent Sunday in Chicago with relatives.

G. H. Bahr, 319 Academy street, has moved to 54 South Main street. Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Farley, 932 Mineral Point avenue, have moved to 635 Fifth avenue.

Mrs. Helen McNaught and daughter Louise, and Miss Margaret Fritchard, 223 South Avenue, are home after spending a week at the home of Mrs. Oscar Kline, Lake Geneva.

Mrs. J. A. Yunker, 408 North High street, left Sunday night for Omaha, Neb., to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McNamara. Her daughter, Mrs. McNamara, underwent an operation in a hospital in Omaha. She is reported to be convalescing.

(Additional Society on Page B.)

Have Never Been Beaten
on Quality or Price!

We feel enthusiastic over our opportunity to give car-owners the best tire values ever offered here. And we are equally pleased with the way the public has responded.

We are sincere in saying emphatically that we have never seen such trustworthy quality at so low a price as we are quoting on Oldfield tires.

The mileage records of Oldfields everywhere are proof of their unusual quality. Owners are constantly reporting voluntarily the splendid performance of Oldfields on their cars. Official tests invariably tell a big story of Oldfield mileage and service.

Make a comparison yourself of the prices we quote below with what you would otherwise pay for tires of guaranteed quality. You are bound to say that here is the season's big buying opportunity.

Racing history for the past three years has been an unbroken series of victories for Oldfield tires. In every important race in this country the winners have driven Oldfield-equipped cars. Such great drivers as Jimmy Murphy, Tommy Milton and many more are Oldfield enthusiasts.

A far greater number of car-owners are putting Oldfields on all four wheels of their cars than ever before. Oldfield sales in July were 266% more than June. Our own sale here is reflecting this big national demand.

Buying Oldfields by the carload is good business for you and for us. It enables us to give you the lowest possible prices for guaranteed quality tires. Come in and let us show you the tires—with their handsome black treads in the efficient anti-skid design.

You'll agree with what we say above—Oldfield tires have never been beaten on quality and prices.

RELIABLE AUTO EQUIPMENT
COMPANY

128 CORN EXCHANGE.

PHONE 3325

Let SCHLUETER Equip Your Car with OLDFIELDS!

CANDIDATES ALL ON LAST RACE LAP

Morgan and Paulsen to be in Janesville Thursday Night

—Other Speakers.

Madison.—The final week of the Wisconsin primary election campaign got under way today with candidates redoubling their efforts down in the populous southeastern counties of Wisconsin where the heavy vote that decides the election is cast.

State day at the Wisconsin state fair on Wednesday will draw the political aspirants and their followers to Milwaukee during the middle of the week, for review of the situation before the heavy drive of the final days is set under way. Then comes the last push of the candidates with their organization working in every section of Wisconsin to get voters to the polls.

Senator E. M. La Follette upset his campaign plans by going to Washington on last Friday to vote for the soldier bonus bill. He may be able to return before election day, Sept. 5, and in this case will campaign through southern Wisconsin with Senator L. E. Ekern, candidate for secretary of state, and Phil La Follette his son.

Through Southern Counties

William A. Canfield, the senior senator's opponent for the republican nomination, will continue his intensive speaking tour through the southern counties. He is carrying his contest for the nomination to all sections of the state and is speaking to audiences at numerous cities to get acquainted with the voters.

Both Governor Blaine and Atty. Gen. Morgan will center their campaign in the southeast, seeking out votes for themselves in the gubernatorial contest. They will spend some time at the state fair, looking over the situation and meeting their political lieutenants.

John F. Baker, candidate for attorney general and Martin Paulsen, candidate for secretary of state, are both to be in the southern counties campaigning. Lieut. Gov. George Comings will spend his time in the east central counties.

Morgan in Janesville

Following are the itineraries of candidates:

Atty. General Morgan: Monday, Milwaukee; Tuesday, Milwaukee; Wednesday, Racine; Thursday, 8 p.m., Myers theater, Janesville; Friday, Milwaukee. Saturday

Governor Blaine: Monday, Madison; Tuesday, Fond du Lac; Wednesday, Milwaukee; Thursday, Spring Green, Richland Center, and La Crosse; Friday, Coon Valley, Virga, Mount Sterling, Eastman and Prairie du Chien; Saturday, Patch Grove, Bloomington, Potosi, Hazel Green, Platteville; Sunday, Platteville; Monday, the last day of the campaign, Cuba City, Montford, Lancaster and Fennimore.

Philip La Follette and Herman Ekern, and Senator La Follette if able to return to Wisconsin before election, Tuesday, Reddeburg; Wednesday, Hillboro, La. Farge, Virga; Thursday, Westby, Custer, Bangor, West Salem; Friday, Galesville, Elkhorn and Blaauw; Saturday, Taylor, Milton, Northfield, Alma Center.

Lieut. Governor Comings: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday in Shawano county; Friday and Saturday in Clark county; Mrs. Robert M. La Follette: Monday and Tuesday in Milwaukee.

Baker's Many Speeches

John F. Baker: Monday, Scandia, Iola, Roshtol, Junction City, Stevens Point; Tuesday, Wausau, Dovestown, Fall River, Columbus; Wednesday, Wausau; Thursday, Milwaukee and Kenosha; Friday, Milwaukee; Saturday, Mt. Horeb, Barneveld, Ridgeway, Dodgeville, Holendale, New Glarus, Blanchardville, Monticello, Brodhead; Sunday, and Monday, Kingston, Markesan, and Waupun.

Martin Paulsen: Monday, Witek, Thorp, Stanley, Boyd, Cadott, Chippewa Falls; Tuesday, Elbowr, Barron, Cumberland, Rice Lake; Thursday, Chippewa Falls and Janesville; 8 p.m., Friday, Dogwood, Mineral Point, Lancaster, Platteville; Saturday, Deerfield; Monday, Sun Prairie.

JEFFERSON

Jefferson.—Miss Katherine Schuld, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schuld, Jefferson, died at her home, 1015 N. 11th St., Saturday morning. Besides her parents who are survived by two brothers and sisters, Mrs. L. M. Mezen, Joliet, Ill.; Mrs. R. A. Turner, Jefferson; George P. Schuld, Johnson Creek, and Theodore Schuld, Jefferson. The funeral services took place Saturday at St. John's Catholic church at 9 a.m. The Rev. J. H. Kesseler officiating. She was buried in St. John's cemetery. John Beischel, Fred Lukas, Rainer, John Metzen, Otto Spanner and Edwin F. Farnum served as pall bearers.

These from out of town who attended the funeral were: Mrs. William Beck, Mrs. John Beck, Joseph Gaylor, Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. George Helmer, Mr. and Mrs. Quintus Byrne and Mrs. William Elbow, Janesville; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ganser, Mr. William Fischer, Louis and Genevieve Fischer, Charles Schlumberger, Port Atkinson; Mrs. Peter Humback, Wausau; Joseph Day, Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. George Schuld, Jefferson; John Metzen, Louis Wagner and daughter, Lucinda, Johnson Creek; Ernest Weber, Johnson Creek and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Garity, Hellenville.

Ted Wittemeyer, Milwaukee, is visiting at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Mistle. Mrs. L. M. Metzen, Joliet, Ill., spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schuld. Joseph Borg returned home Saturday after spending a week with relatives in Milwaukee.

“The Valley Incomparable” is one name for Yosemite park. The sheer immensity of the cliffs will startle and please you. The Yosemite falls drop 1,430 feet. Nowhere else is there such a water spectacle as is shown free by the Gazette travel bureau.

POLICE PATROL IS BACK IN SERVICE

Freshly painted and overhauled, the patrol car of the Janesville police department was received at headquarters Saturday morning. For the past six weeks it has been in the shop. It now presents the appearance of a brand new machine. So as to keep the patrol in better condition, a new

Former Gov. Philipp Out in Support of Ganfield and Opposes Socialism

Morgan and Paulsen to be in Janesville Thursday Night

—Other Speakers.

Madison.—The final week of the Wisconsin primary election campaign got under way today with candidates redoubling their efforts down in the populous southeastern counties of Wisconsin where the heavy vote that decides the election is cast.

State day at the Wisconsin state fair on Wednesday will draw the political aspirants and their followers to Milwaukee during the middle of the week, for review of the situation before the heavy drive of the final days is set under way. Then comes the last push of the candidates with their organization working in every section of Wisconsin to get voters to the polls.

Senator E. M. La Follette upset his campaign plans by going to Washington on last Friday to vote for the soldier bonus bill. He may be able to return before election day, Sept. 5, and in this case will campaign through southern Wisconsin with Senator L. E. Ekern, candidate for secretary of state, and Phil La Follette his son.

Through Southern Counties

William A. Canfield, the senior senator's opponent for the republican nomination, will continue his intensive speaking tour through the southern counties. He is carrying his contest for the nomination to all sections of the state and is speaking to audiences at numerous cities to get acquainted with the voters.

Both Governor Blaine and Atty. Gen. Morgan will center their campaign in the southeast, seeking out votes for themselves in the gubernatorial contest. They will spend some time at the state fair, looking over the situation and meeting their political lieutenants.

John F. Baker, candidate for attorney general and Martin Paulsen, candidate for secretary of state, are both to be in the southern counties campaigning. Lieut. Gov. George Comings will spend his time in the east central counties.

Morgan in Janesville

Following are the itineraries of candidates:

Atty. General Morgan: Monday, Milwaukee; Tuesday, Milwaukee; Wednesday, Racine; Thursday, 8 p.m., Myers theater, Janesville; Friday, Milwaukee. Saturday

Governor Blaine: Monday, Madison; Tuesday, Fond du Lac; Wednesday, Milwaukee; Thursday, Spring Green, Richland Center, and La Crosse; Friday, Coon Valley, Virga, Mount Sterling, Eastman and Prairie du Chien; Saturday, Patch Grove, Bloomington, Potosi, Hazel Green, Platteville; Sunday, Platteville; Monday, the last day of the campaign, Cuba City, Montford, Lancaster and Fennimore.

Philip La Follette and Herman Ekern, and Senator La Follette if able to return to Wisconsin before election, Tuesday, Reddeburg; Wednesday, Hillboro, La. Farge, Virga; Thursday, Westby, Custer, Bangor, West Salem; Friday, Galesville, Elkhorn and Blaauw; Saturday, Taylor, Milton, Northfield, Alma Center.

Lieut. Governor Comings: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday in Shawano county; Friday and Saturday in Clark county; Mrs. Robert M. La Follette: Monday and Tuesday in Milwaukee.

Baker's Many Speeches

John F. Baker: Monday, Scandia, Iola, Roshtol, Junction City, Stevens Point; Tuesday, Wausau, Dovestown, Fall River, Columbus; Wednesday, Wausau; Thursday, Milwaukee and Kenosha; Friday, Milwaukee; Saturday, Mt. Horeb, Barneveld, Ridgeway, Dodgeville, Holendale, New Glarus, Blanchardville, Monticello, Brodhead; Sunday, and Monday, Kingston, Markesan, and Waupun.

Martin Paulsen: Monday, Witek, Thorp, Stanley, Boyd, Cadott, Chippewa Falls; Tuesday, Elbowr, Barron, Cumberland, Rice Lake; Thursday, Chippewa Falls and Janesville; 8 p.m., Friday, Dogwood, Mineral Point, Lancaster, Platteville; Saturday, Deerfield; Monday, Sun Prairie.

CAMPAIGN ISSUE FOR CONGRESSMEN STILL UNDECIDED

Evansville

Mr. L. P. Miller, Phone 200-2, Correspondent.

Evansville—Mrs. Louise Rownde spent the weekend in Madison with her friend, Miss Bertha Sanders.

Harvey Walton went to Milwaukee Sunday, where he will be on police duty during the state fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Geohi entered Sunday; Mr. and Mrs. Julius Willing, Janesville; Charles Berger and three children and Mr. and Mrs. Emory Role, Footville.

A prospect, Ill., party with a sedan coasting down the Millbrandt hill, two miles south of town Saturday, struck some sand and tipped over, damaging the car badly. The occupant escaped with only minor bruises.

FOR RENT or Sale, 5 room house, partly modern, just painted, 120 N. 2nd St., Evansville. Possession given after Sept. 8. Write Mary J. Earle, Gen. Del. Evansville. —Adv.

Delbert Jones and family spent Sunday with the former's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson returned home Friday night from Beloit, where they spent a few days with friends and relatives and attended the American Legion convention.

Mrs. Fannie Leary and daughter Grace, returned from Lone Rock where they visited friends and relatives.

Mrs. Edna Norton, after nursing a friend at Sloughton for three weeks, returned home Saturday night.

Rev. Wallace of the First Baptist church, Madison, with his wife and son, attended services at the Baptist church here Sunday.

Miss Rachel Jones, who has been attending Columbia University at New York city, returned home the last of the week.

Miss Myrtle Green entertained Friday afternoon, the guest of honor being Mrs. Maurice Van Heeke, Chapel Hill, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Babcock visited friends in Janesville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Emery, moving from California to their home in New York city, made a short visit at the home of Mrs. Emery's brother, R. D. Hartley, and wife.

Miss Bernadine Gillmann and Miss Florence Brunsell entertained 20 friends at a 9 o'clock breakfast at the park Sunday morning for the Misses Grace Hayll and Meade Porter, who will become brides this week.

The following Fort Legion boys attended the state convention at Sheldon Donkot, postmaster, A. L. Stengel, Max Schulz, William Hoard, Paul J. Oden, Edward White, Lawrence Hobbs, Franklin Pierce, John Waske, Larue Damuth, Edward Mueller and Irving Roberts.

Walter Glover and Forbes Daniels have returned from hiking trip to the Dells.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Vosburg, who held positions in Washington during and since the war, left Washington Saturday for New Orleans, where they will be employed in the veterans' bureau.

The Edgewater stock farm has installed a radio receiving outfit, purchased from the Motor Maintenance company.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gibson and little girl are visiting at the home of Mr. Gibson's parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Gibson.

The Volunteer society met at the residence of Mrs. George Doxheimer Friday afternoon. A good crowd was present. Mrs. Doris Gustafson, Whitewater, gave several vocal solos.

Mrs. E. Gustafson read a story. The session was opened with Misses Gladys Rabenstein and Darwin Converse.

A musical recital was given Saturday night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen, Sherman avenue. Mrs. Hansen's nephew, Wesley Sonnen, well known violinist of Milwaukee, played.

Fort Atkinson—The families of George Kiesling, Oscar Lemke, Albert Gratzman and Fred Keur, motored to Columbus Sunday.

Mrs. F. W. Hoard, H. L. Hoard, George Cuswell and Mrs. F. W. Hoard spent Saturday afternoon at the N. M. Hopkins cottage, Lake Ripley.

W. W. Whalen of Kent, Ore., who has been spending some weeks here visiting relatives and old friends, departed for home Saturday. Friday night a farewell party for Mr. Whalen was given at H. L. Hoard's summer cottage at Carencro Point, Lake Koskoshon.

Miss Hazel Doyle, who has been spending the summer here with her mother and sister, Miss Frank Doyle and Miss Margaret Barnesworth, departed for Mishawaka, Ind., where she will teach in the commercial department of the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller of Indianapolis, were the guests of Miss Hazel Doyle Friday.

The action of the Ohio state convention in calling upon the country to “stand by the president” is the single cue to republican strategy which permits them to stand back.

The question of the federal expenditures has unquestionably given the stump speakers some ammunition. Republicans will point with pride to the refunding of the public debt and the lowered cost of government, while the democrats will “view with alarm” the fact that while the budget in this campaign year was balanced, the coming fiscal year shows a probable deficit, according to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, of nearly a half billion dollars.

FIGURES PROVE ARGUMENTS.

Figures rarely make good campaign arguments. They are twisted so as to prove practically anything the partisans want proved. Something much more dramatic than statistics and something much nearer home than the armament conference whose economics are in the future rather than the present will be required to live up to the campaign. The soldier point will be submitted for approval.

The cavalry troop has been busy with two parades at Beloit the past two weeks. Saturday, the 22 horses were taken to Bluff View park where a sham battle was staged Sunday.

THE CAMPAIGN ISSUE FOR CONGRESSMEN STILL UNDECIDED

(Continued from Page 1.)

bound to consider whether the employ coal bin is the fault of the miners and operators, or the government which permits them to do so.

The question of the federal expenditures has unquestionably given the stump speakers some ammunition. Republicans will point with pride to the refunding of the public debt and the lowered cost of government, while the democrats will “view with alarm” the fact that while the budget in this campaign year was balanced, the coming fiscal year shows a probable deficit, according to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, of nearly a half billion dollars.

HOUSEHOLDERS' VOTE.

The working masses will, as usual, be asked to believe what the leaders of labor say is an unfriendly attitude on the part of the republican administration toward them, while the capitalists of industry will be urged by public officials to stand by the president.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kiesling and their son, George, are spending a few days at the residence of Mrs. E. L. Bingham, and G. E. Bacon and families.

H. R. Risdon and wife, Madison, have been visiting here this week.

“Leo L. ‘Pedo’ Lamphere,” instructor at Culver Military Academy during the summer, has returned to his home here.—The W. C. T. U. meets with Mrs. C. A. Davis, Tuesdays.

—Ross Lyon and family spent the week in Chicago.

—The W. C. T. U. has come on an automobile tour of central Wisconsin.

Professors W. D. Burdick and D. N. Ingalls made a motor trip to Milwaukee, Friday.—Mrs. Arthur Schwank, Chicago, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White.

Big Wind and rain here but no but no bad Thursday. The rain was needed.

MILTON

Milton—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thomas have moved to La Crosse, where the former will teach.—Mrs.

J. H. Burdick is attending the Seventh Day Adventist conference at Asbury, Ky.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Bingham, the famous concertists, are visiting E. L. Bingham and G. E. Bacon and families.

H. R. Risdon and wife, Madison, have been visiting here this week.

“Leo L. ‘Pedo’ Lamphere,” instructor at Culver Military Academy during the summer, has returned to his home here.—The W. C. T. U. meets with Mrs. C. A. Davis, Tuesdays.

—Ross Lyon and family spent

the week in Chicago.

—The W. C. T. U. has come on an automobile tour of central Wisconsin.

Professors W. D. Burdick and D. N. Ingalls made a motor trip to Milwaukee, Friday.—Mrs. Arthur Schwank, Chicago, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White.

Big Wind and rain here but no

but no bad Thursday. The rain was needed.

<

The Cross-Cut

A Serial Story of the Colorado Mines

By Courtney Ryley Cooper.
Copyright by Little, Brown & Co.

SYNOPSIS

At Thornton Fairchild's death his son Robert learns there has been a dark period in his father's life which he had never known and caused his suffering. The secret is hinted at in a document left by the elder Fairchild, which also informs Robert he is now over a mining claim in Colorado and advises him to see Henry Beaman, a lawyer.

Beaman tells Robert his claim is a silver mine and warns him against a silver man, "Squint Rock," his father's enemy. Robert goes to the mining town and finds an old friend of his father's in Mother Howard, keeper of a boarding house where his father had stayed. He also learns the truth from a precamer who turned away pursuers by giving them the wrong direction. Harry, an old Cornishman partner of his father's, turns up and says that the secret of the mine is still alive. Harry also discovers that the girl he had rescued on the Denver road was the daughter of Squint Rock. Harry and Robert are warned to go home.

That's a good idea. The sheriff snapped the handcuffs into place. Then Fairchild shut off the pumps and started toward the machine. Back in Chadi, more news awaited them.

Harry, if Harry had been the highwayman, had gone to expense, for his son, "The Doctor Demon," had taken his hardware company, "The Greig Brothers," had been robbed of the accessories necessary for a disguise—also the revolvers and their bullets. Robert Fairchild watched Harry placed in the solitary cell of the county jail with a spirit that could not respond to the Cornishman's grin and his assurances that morning would bring a night of affairs. Four robbers hung heavy over him, the lead of one of them being of highway robbery, and across the final assault with attempt to kill, Fairchild turned weakly away; he could not find the optimism to join Harry's cheerful announcement that it would be "all right." The appearances were otherwise. Besides, up in the little hospital on the hill, Fairchild had seen lights gleaming as he entered the jail, and he knew that doctors were working there over the wounded body of the felon. Thus, never at heart, his cell consisted of the silent, sodden, and overshadowed hour, he turned away from the cell and its optimistic occupant—out into the night.

It was only a short walk to the hospital, and Fairchild went there, to leave with at least a ray of hope. The probing operation had been completed; the fiddler would live, and at least the charge against Harry would not be one of murder. But the thoughts, the thoughts, but the thoughts, to cause consternation as Fairchild walked slowly down the dark, winding street toward the main thoroughfare. Without Harry, Fairchild now felt himself lost. Before the big, gonal, egocentric Cornishman had come into his life, he had believed, with some sort of divine ignorance, that he could carry out his ambitions by himself, with no knowledge of the technical details. Now, with no previous history of the Blue Poppy to guide him, and with no help against the enemies who seemed everywhere. Now he saw that it was impossible. More, the incidents of the night showed how swiftly those enemies were working, how sharp and stiletto-like their weapons.

That Harry was innocent was certain to Robert Fairchild. Looking back over it now, he could see how easily Harry had played into the hands of the Robdines. If the Robdines had not possessed a deeper concern than merely to seize upon a happening and turn it to their own account, the highwayman was big. The highwayman talked with a dimly through a red screen. From the screen, the frightened face of Harry Richmond, and on the landing, fronting him directly, stood the two Robdines. For a moment Fairchild disregarded them and turned to the shadowed, disheveled little being in the doorway.

"What's happened?"

"They were threatening me—and father! You must come in—you shouldn't have you scream. I couldn't help it. I heard you say they were killing your father."

The girl looked anxiously toward an inner room, where Fairchild could see faintly the silent figure of a man outlined under the covers of an old-fashioned four-poster.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better get out," said Fairchild quickly to the Robdines, with a suggestive motion toward the stairs. They hesitated a moment and Maurice seemed about to launch himself at Robert, but his father held a restraining hand on his arm. A step and the older Edna hesitated.

"Those three men excited. He had another stroke. I—I couldn't stand it any longer."

"You'd better

LATEST NEWS AND CLOSING MARKETS

Weekly Livestock Review

CATTLE. Chicago.—Steers sold on declining markets last week. The general run of the offering ended the period at $1.05 per cwt., with some very weak spots on medium to good yearlings that looked almost $1 off. Practically everything selling from 10c to 15c above the loss. Steers showing above that were running fairly steady and brought as much money as they would have any time this year.

Receipts last week, including Saturday, were about 7,000 head, or more than the previous week, and more than 10,000 larger than the corresponding week two years ago. The basic market was moderately good, and the big seaboard markets closed weak to 50c and in some cases $1 lower. The Chicago beef cattle market had declined steadily and butchers were seeking the few best grades, especially all week, but salesmen with lower grades found the going better.

Butcher Stock. Cows and heifers sold on dull and lower markets daily last week, with uneven decline in some areas, but the basic market and the close saw many medium grade cows and heifers to $1 off from the best time last week. Even the choice cows sold lower by the end of the week.

Bulls ended the week about in line with the close of the previous week, but 10c to 15c lower in instances, except in the low grade butchers.

A few heifers sold up to $4.25 at the close, but the bulk went from $3.85 to $4.15.

Canners and Cutters.

Canners and cutters ended the week little changed from a week ago. The bulk of the canners sold at $3.75, with strong weights, though a few low weight for doubtful cows. Cutters sold generally at $3.00 to $3.25, but cows near the bottom of the scale held on slightly to $3.25. The few canners held on much better than medium beef.

Stockers and Feeders. Stockers and feeders advanced about 25c the early part of the week but then disappeared on the close, markets ending the week about steady with the previous week's close. Receipts contained few of the better qualities. There was a slight range in the market provided a better assortment of medium priced grades than the big movement of northwestern range cattle has hardly started and prices have not reached a stable point.

Country demand was a little better early in the week, but a general market for the steers and the demand for the calves caused stockers to sell lower after Monday and Tuesday. Most sales fell within a range of $3.00 to $7.00, with exceptions to $1.00 to $7.50, though yearlings sold around $7.25 to $7.50 and strong-weight, well-bred feeders were quoted above $8.00, although that grade was almost too scarce to quote.

HOGS. Chicago.—Receipts last week at 125,000 are among the smallest of the year, but the market was the largest for the period of the year, being larger than any corresponding week in over 11 previous years, barring 1916.

Receipts for the previous week total 15,000 larger than a year ago, 11,000 larger than two years ago and 11,000 larger than 11-year average. Corresponding supplies during the last 11 years ranged from 145,000 to 165,000.

A liberal proportion of last week's offerings consisted of weighty hogs, which forced the general average weight up another pound. Last week's average, steady at 250, equals the heaviest in several years, being heavier than any corresponding period in eleven years.

Another 100,000 fed and top hog, the lowest since January, and with best last week at $7.75, was selling 60c below previous week's top, within 1c of second best.

Another 100,000 of common mixed and heavy packing grades resulted in several sharply lower sessions, while at the close registered a total loss of 6c.

Claudized Hog Quotations.

Saturday's closing hog quotations on the Chicago market follow:

Bulk of mixed packers.....$1.00@$1.75
Bulk of medium packers.....$1.00@$1.75
Pork to good mixed packers.....$2.00@$2.25

Pork to good heavy packers.....$2.0

A Want Ad Will Help To Sell Your Motor Boat Or To Buy One

Classified Advertising PHONES 2500

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.
Errors in want ads will be corrected and an extra insertion given when a notation is made after the first insertion.

Closing Hours.—All classified ads must be received before 10:00 A.M. to insure the same day's local insertion accepted up until 12 o'clock.

Telephone.—When ordering an ad over the telephone always ask that it be repeated back to you by the ad taker to make sure that it has been taken correctly. Telephone 2500 Classified Ad Department.

Answered Ads.—Kept ads can be answered by letter. Answers to keyed ads will be held 10 days after or the date of the first insertion of the ad.

Classification.—The Gazette reserves the right to classify all classified ads according to its own rules governing classification.

CLASSIFIED ADS.—When it is more convenient to you and as this is a accommodation service, The Gazette expects payment promptly on receipt of your ad.

Persons whose names do not appear in either the City Directory or Telephone Directory should cash with their advertisements.

TABLE OF RATES.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page 2500.

For rates on display ads, see page 2500.

For rates on editorial ads, see page 2500.

For rates on classified ads, see page

